Sacred Circle Coming to Calgary this Summer

August 5 to 10

Volunteers Needed

Sacred Circle, the main governing body of the Indigenous Anglican Church, will continue to give shape to the emerging self-governing institution when it meets Aug. 5-10 in Calgary, Alberta.

National Indigenous Archbishop Chris Harper says key topics will include working out the procedural structures needed to put its founding documents, Our Way of Life and the Covenant, into practice; discussing an equitable method of picking representatives to Sacred Circle from across Canada; analyzing the funding available to the Indigenous church; and potentially even choosing a new national Indigenous Archbishop.

How can you be part of this groundbreaking initiative?

We need Greeters, document deliverers, first aiders, Elder attendants, and booth minders. Can you help for four hours? What day(s) could you come? Any day that works for you would work for us.

You will see firsthand the work of the Anglican Church in meeting the needs of all people and congregations who love God and desire to worship in their own unique and meaningful way.

Contact Lois Reid to offer your help and to make a difference at this conference.

Scan to make your offering - Thank you for your support!!!
