Announcing our Incoming Interim Priest-in-Charge

Those who were in church on Sunday heard the wonderful news that our good friend Padre John Wilcox will be coming back as Interim Priest-in-Charge starting March 1.

John was with us as Interim Assistant Priest in 2021-22 and was much loved by the congregation and staff. It will be a joy to welcome John back to Christ Church and to benefit from his steady leadership through a time of transition.

John had a decorated career in the Military Ordinariate as a chaplain and chaplain supervisor. From John's bio that used to be on the Christ Church website:

Commander (ret'd) Rev. Canon John Wilcox grew up in Alberta attending elementary school in Edmonton followed by High School and University in Calgary. Upon completion of a Bachelor of Music Canon Wilcox went on to attend Seminary in Toronto at Trinity College receiving a Masters of Divinity. Canon Wilcox then returned to the Diocese of Calgary where he was Ordained in 1984 and placed at St Gabriel's Anglican Church. In 1986 Canon Wilcox felt called to ministry in the Canadian Armed Forces retiring in 2014 at the rank of Commander. Canon Wilcox went on to serve in several Parishes in the Diocese of Ottawa until 2021. In the fall of 2021 Canon Wilcox along with his wife of 38 years, Mary-Lynn, moved back to Calgary to be closer to their children and grandchildren.

John has offered interim ministry in Calgary since his return, also spending a year serving as Interim at Holy Trinity.
